SOCIETY OF SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL OF VANCOUVER ISLAND
Pay transparency report

The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul (SSVP) is a Catholic lay organization with a mission to serve individuals and families in need, regardless of their background or beliefs. Guided by values of dignity, respect, and compassion, we provide practical assistance and emotional support to those facing life's challenges.
Our work on Vancouver Island includes offering food, housing, clothing, and other essential services to those in need, while also addressing the root causes of poverty and injustice. Through the dedication of our volunteers, conferences, and community partners, we strive to uplift lives, foster hope, and build a stronger, more just community for all.
